

NEAT SPACES EZINE - MARCH 2010

Brought to you by Wendy Hollick, Professional Organizer

Just like that, spring is right around the corner! Spring is the perfect time to clean out clutter, as you put away your winter clothing and equipment and get ready for longer days and warmer temperatures.

Time Saving Tip

Focus on one section of your home at a time. Start by organizing the area that will have the biggest impact on you and your family, and don't start working on any other rooms until that one is done.

Space Saving Tip

Under-the-bed storage containers are perfect for keeping your off-season clothing clean and out of the way.

Money Saving Tip

When buying containers, remember to shop with a purpose. Knowing what you will be storing gives you power to purchase only what you need and not just something that looks pretty in the store.

Green Tip

Keep old computers and electronic gadgets out of the landfill by donating them to an organization who will refurbish or repair them, then give them to someone in need or sell them to raise funds for a good cause. Visit www.charityvillage.com for a list of organizations who accept donated goods.

Garage Organizing Tip

Think vertical when planning out your garage storage. Overhead racks are great for items used less often. Slat walls accommodate many types of hooks that are extremely helpful for those hard to store items. If you need help with the planning part of the job, drop me an email, I'd love to help.

Relocation Tip

Take some time to become comfortable in your new surroundings so you don't get overwhelmed. Start by unpacking the things you'll need to use right away, such as bedding and dishes.

Numbering your moving boxes and keeping a check list of the contents will ensure being able to get to the items you need most first.

Always keep an immediate box for those items that are needed on move in day.

Packing like with like saves you time when unpacking and setting up in your new home.

Once you are all settled in, hanging your beloved pictures can add warmth to any room and make your space feel like home.
